at Monday's meeting of the county Board of Supervisors. She will replace Mr. Russ who died Aug. and will continue until supervisor is officially oppointed through an election which must be conducted within 60 days.

Charles Lavinghouse was unanimously appointed vice-preaident pro temp, the position formerly held by Russ. Members of the board also voted to extend their sympothy to the Russ family.

In other matters the board accepted a bill of exceptions filed by Mrs. Paulina Necaise, farough her attorney, Joseph H. Benvenutti, protesting a resolution adopted last week declaring public the disputed road extending north from the Lower Boy Road. The bill states that the case should be tried during the next term of Circuit Court, The road in question is known as Necaise Road and is said to have been graded and generally improved for many years by county work crews.

On motion of James Necaise is was voted to discontinue employment of a bridge tender ca the Jordan River Bridge on the Kiln Road since the bridge has been demolished.

On motion of Necaise, T. T. Reboul was appointed to serve another term on the Board of Trustees es Hancock General Hospital

A recap of land rolls was signed by all board members. Cancellation of one of a dual assessment was approved.

Thomas Logue, manager ef Hancock General Hespital, noted that the hospital has been full on the mound, and Claude Yar- for some time and that with the expected increase in the number of residents in the county, because of the NASA operation, more beds would be needed, possibly another hospital. SUMMER'S EMD - Vocationing seawall crabbons wistfully eye last catch before school bells

Wheel Hip, htp, hoorsy and happy dayl PII probably sound like an unnatural mother when I explain the cause or the above gleaful quotations. . , the school deers are open ence more and peace reigns supresse. Teo, the long processions of sightseeing host-pulling existencialist hear disappeared, parking places are plantiful again and only a few empty beer came and a stray pup or two inhabit the beach. Den't think we don't love summer and every (almost suvway) summer visitor, but for some reason this has been the language, bottest summer we can recall.

However, as we bask in the calm after the storm, we recall one of the liveliest Labor Day weekends in years - a literal blast of activity closed the season-

The Ed Rowley's bested on coermons porty at their levely bene, Magaolia, Samrday, Claire and A. J. Frey and offspring also spent the weekend herethey mok advantage of Margie and John Auderer's new book and enjoyed an overnight fishing trip Saturday and Sunday.

Bula May and Billy Osbourne entertained at a large barbecon on their Coleman Ave. home Sunday. . . some of the guests were Alicia Dell and Steets Starita, Benry and Frank Lombardo, Myrtis and Melvin McCardle, Juanita and Ory Ledner, June and Oris Ledner and Riva and Curris Ladner.

Gerri and Sam Blanchard celebroned their cedding annivernous (12) at their annual barbeous Sunday. . , sorting roast, harm, green rice, baked beans and other delicacies were Ann and Henry Develle, Phyl and Jimmy Lagasse, Elaine Davis, Ray Bordages, Helen and Will Bordages, Mamie and Man Gianelloui, Margie and Tom Logue, Tina and Dave Rainey, Carmen and Dan Kirschenbeuter and their houseguests, Chris and Elaine (Sweetle) Christianson who have been stationed in Munich, Germany, Chris being in the judge advocate branch of the army, Lourn and Fred Raugger, Benish and Frank Peterson, Clarence and Josie Herbig, Jackie and Mickey Carson, Babel and Homer Taylor, Cena Moe and Jay Le Saicherre, Ruth and Matt Ballatin, Peggy and Floyd Hepting, Shirley Lockwood, Jos (spell my name right) O'Neill, Jim Kuthmann, jr., Bill and Myrno Mouse' Ryan who anticipere their sixth visit from the stork in December, Adele and L. J. Brown, B. J. and Val Marengo, Juanita Cullice, Roy De Hean and we know there were more, but we're tired of typing names

Joyce Lehman was a lovely bride when she and Robert Peterson were wed Saturday morning on St. Clare's. Two bridesmaids, Frances Lister (maid of honor) and Maria Peterson, almost went unrecognized by your reporter, so grown-up did they appear in pastel finery. Just about everyone from Clermont Harbor attended as did many from New Orleans, Waveland and the Bay. . . a few appeared in smart fall cauties, Mrs. Ed Kreiger wore a dark suit, Claudia Klein, a honey beige two piece offair, Grace Bordages (usually so punctual, arrived just as the ceremony ended, the hought it was 11 instead of 10), wearing a becoming plaid... others ignored the Sept. 1, date and appeared in summer entire. . . Shirley Hawkins was lovely in navy with white jersey skirt, Daris Klotz' striking tan was accented by her white linen sheath, Mattle Garcia were a becoming frested blue dress and matching hat, Jeanne Lister were a pale ten dress, topped with a really fabulous hat, and both mothers, Doris Lohman and Mrs. Ben Peterson looked like fashion plates. I think Benjah Peterson were a most becoming hat, but she snatched it off before I could examine it closely, Gloria Peterson chose navy and white, Betty Klein, a pale blue, Lillian Garcia also sported a fancy chapean and Pat Garcia, nee Villere, who is bootie knitting at present, had on the best looking maternity frock we've seen in years-it was white with tiny jeweled applique at the neck. . . we'll add that the men were all handsome though a trifle warm in quite proper attire for morning auptials.

Former Wavelanders, Miller and Sidney Bonvillian and children. who had just settled down on a large farm near Kiln, only to be taken into the buffer zone, are now making their home in Lockport, La Miller was the recent guest of her sunt, Mrs. N. E. Sauls at her City Tuesday but will be back in Waveland come January.

Mr. and Mrs. Cry Lather, Mrs. Robert Boudin and Mrs. Busice Boudin recently returned from Mulberry, Fla., where they visited Mr. and Mrs.Glen Ladner and family.

Other recent Florida vacationers were Mrs. A. S. Kreger of Waveland and Mr. and Mrs. R. Collette and children Randy and Pam. Their itinerary included Citrus Tower at Clermont, Fla. where they viewed citrus covered hills and lakes, watched artists display their glass blowing talents, saw wildlife arena and viners (from a safe distance) and toured a citrus processing exhibit.

Harbor Happenings

Mrs. Ray Planchard of N. O. and Chernson experienced a group of friends, members of PTA and Sisters of Christian Charity of St. Rephael School of N. O. et an all-day picate at her summer ham on Aug. 28. The day was perfect for the menerouse which errived early in the morning for a day of relaxation for the Savera, has back from Retreat, who open the fall section of school this week. This is a annual affair, looked forward to by the group of the class of summer vocation.

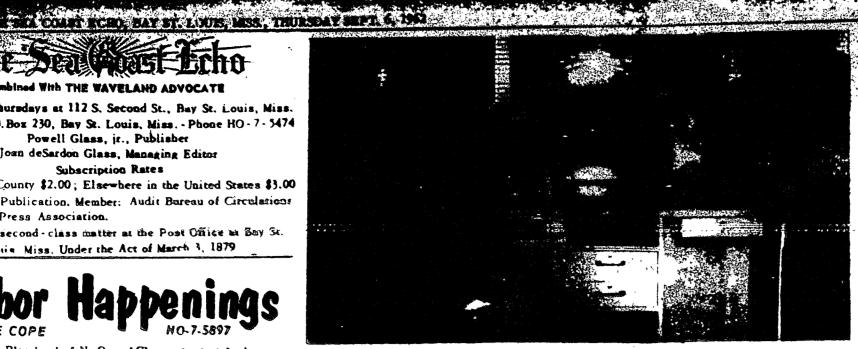

Mrs. Planchard's sea Donald, greducted a Levels in Jens leaves on Oct. 20 for a 2-year ROTC training course of Ft. Mc-Chellan, Alb. . Mrs. Flayd Garcia, daughters Cayle and Susen and niece Marilyn sajoyed a few days vecation with sister-in-law Mrs. I. C. Williams in Pleasanting, Las recently, Marilyn was excited over their trip to Batta Rouge and the tour of the cepital. . Smitty and Anna Jos Pearce arrived home from N. O. in a brand new white Buick convertible Saturday, pulled into the drive with 110 miles on the speedmeter and in us time at all Smitty was in sport togs riding her hike for exercise.

A labor Day party of note was that of the William Sheeffers on Bordages St. where house guests, Beb and Mae Power and Ruth Rillis of N. O., arrived Priday night to start off the long weekend. The all day picnic was held on Sunday with sames, music and dancing consuming most of the time. A long refectory table decorated in autumn colors, was laden with platters and casseroles of delectable hot and cold feeds in variety to appeare the most ravishing appetite. Over from N. O. were the Cerre B. Dibolls. J. Raymonds, the Channing Fells, Sal Palmissanos, and son Gene; Louise Pitre, Mercedes Morr, Betty and Cerre B. Diboll, ir. who were calebrating their first anniversary, Lillian Ricker and the A. Gallianos of N. O. and Clermont, the John Eckendorfs of Beach Blvd. and N. O. Geo. Schroeders of N. O. Chick Goodbee and Eva Jacobs of N. O. and Waveland, Jehn Thresh of Grand Bay, Ala, Ray Scott, Jackson, Althea Fabing, N. O., Gladys and Neis Nelson, Jessie McGregor of Baton Rouge, Res Cope of Clermont and several others who arrived as I was leaving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eckendorf of Beach Blvd. have returned from a vacation in Florida where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Singleton in Orlando, and later toured other points of interest such as Cypress Gardens, Silver Springs, Bok Tower et cetera, Recent guests of Mrs. Lillian Ricker were Elisbeth Comeaux and daughter Claudia; James and Casilda Roy, Mrs. Mary Ann Whitmore and children Baird and Paul of N. O. . Mrs. Bernie Fertier of N. O. returned home after a week vacation with sister and brother-inlaw, the W. J. Tonglets. . . Guests of Chic Goodbee and Eva Jacobs over Labor Day weekend were Althea Fabing, of N. O., John Thrash of Grand Bay, Alac, and Ray Scott of Jackson.

Mrs. Ben Peterson entertained at an after rehearsal supper party Friday night at her home on the Boulevard in honor of her son Robert and his bride-to-be, Miss Joyce Lohman of No O., who exchanged their vows at St. Clare's Church in Waveland Saturday morning. Attending the offsir were their attendants and Mrs. John Bonnecarre of Baton Rouge, who came to attend her nephews wedding.

Another big all-day Labor Day celebration Sunday was that of the Irwin Olsens at their Oak St. home where they were also observing the birthday of Bloise, their daughter-in-law, with the respect to the occasion. The refreshment table was set smorgasbord fashion with quantities of turkey, chicken, ribs, baked beans, macaroni and cheese, potess salad, et cetera with the guests serving themselves to whatever suited their fancy. The hi-fi played continuously inviting dancers to try out the smooth surface of

At the request of Mrs. Evenno Pricks, supervisor of the county home, it was wored to build name titions in one room and to install a lock on the door so that some of the semile could be locked in.

Members also agreed to meet next Menday at 8:30 a.m. so they could adjourn early and attend the opening of the September term of Circuit Court as required by law.

Current bills were approved and it was noted that bills for September would be paid out of funds designated for the next fiscal year.

Jereme's, Je Am Colson: Moliero's, Paula Crider and Moran's, Cleo Moran, Incidentally Cleo returns to Southern for her senior year, she's majoring in phys ed.

Must make a correction-we were a little off on second leading hitter in women's softbell play, Georgette Stelz's final batting average—she had a 127.

Gaynel Lagasse entertained four former L.S.U. classmates at her home last weekend, . .

the gain swam, fished and twist-'til all hours, . . the guests were Aledia Bourdeaux of Serrento, La., Becky Landry of Gonzales, Patsy Boutte and Peggy Olivier, both of Greenmercy.

Jay Legasse recently observed his 15th birthday. . . he was most pleased as he also passed his driver's test. Sharon Ladner hostessed a

Although there is plenty of experience on the Tiger team there is exerience in that big key position, quarterback. Until Penten and lais get a chance to operate under pressure, it's impossible to say low the Tigers will fare at Wiggins or through the rest of the season. If they come through above expectations, Bay High can challenge less Beach for the conference crown, because the Bay High line hald be stingy as "old man Scrooge".

North Central is scheduled to host Bast Central of Wade Friday sist and school superintendent J. D. Penton told us that barring my unferseen developments the stadium lights should be up and mady by 8 p.m., game time.

St. Stanislaus, third county high school, doesn't begin play until an Priday night, facing St. Martin's of Biloxi here.

Bay High's Tigers hit the road Friday night to play Wiggins in sesson's '62 football season curtain-raiser at Perkinston Staim. 12 lettermen are back from last year's squad which placed in it second-place tie in the Gulf Coast Conference with ocean rings behind undefeated Long Beach.

Divey Smith and Frank Miller are slated to open at the end positions, Billy Pahlman and Ted Thomas at tackles, Jerry Thomas and Don Everett at guards, and Alvin Ladner at center. Together by should form one of the best lines in the conference.

Lumpkin, who expects his chief loop competition to come from log Beach, also praised the improvement of newcomers Joe Cemretti, Sam Allison, Jimmy Rutherford, and Tom Mayfield, stating het hey, along with returning lettermen Billy Thomas, Chuch Break, and Richard Schaefer will be ready to take their places on der offense or defense.

The boys are rounding into shape very well considering the het weather," Lumpkin commented. After the Wiggins contest, Bay He returns home for three consecutive Bay St. Louis appearances, mixing with the Pass High game next Thursday night.

Stanislaus' new coach Billy Murphy will add variety to the toothall contests, as he is putting the single-wing offensive
